

Process Technician Job responsibilities:

Acara Solutions is looking for Process Technicians for our client in Fremont, CA

The Process Technician: (Multi-Shifts Available)

- Executes experimental test plans, collects data and assists with engineering and development activities.
- Performs detailed tests in a cleanroom environment which includes operation of semiconductor capital equipment, pre and post processing of wafers including some metrology.
- Works closely with development engineers to create and perform lab tests relevant to process development.
- Experience in cleanroom and/or semiconductor industry is preferred.

Required Skills / Qualifications:

- AA Degree (Associates degree with focus on scientific/mathematical field. BS preferred)
- Min 3 years' experience as a lab technician/ Engineering technician/ Process technician

Preferred Skills / Qualifications:

Semiconductor industry is preferred.

For consideration please e-mail your resume to:

Eric Torr

Email: torre@acarasolutions.com

Phone: 510-572-8418