

Position: CNC Programmer / Operator

Position Summary:

Full-time CNC Programmer / Operator for our in house Voortman machines. To learn the software programming and CAD. Learn running the V630, V808 and saw Voortman production line machines. You will be working with the purchasing department as well as Shop superintendent and foreman, you are encouraged to always ask questions, seek help of others and request the opportunity to learn more about your duties in order to excel. Any constructive suggestions and ideas you may have to improve Lee's Imperial welding systems and increasing the efficiency of the office is highly welcomed. Below are some of your job tasks:

Job Tasks:

CNC Programming (SDS, Manual Batcher, V808 software)

Familiar with AutoCAD

Filing of drawings and other documents

Operating CNC Machines

Compensation:

A starting hourly wage rate of $18.50 is offered; with a probationary performance review and evaluation at ninety (90) days. Working hours are Monday through Friday 5:30 AM to 1:30 PM for a total of forty (40) hours per week. Any hours worked in excess of 40 hours per week will be paid at Time & One-Half.

Benefits:

Per Union Contract.

Job Qualifications & Requirements:

Valid California Driver's License

Strong Math and computer skills

Able to read technical and construction drawings

Ability to multi task in a schedule driven environment

Ability to maintain input accuracy, strong attention to detail

Maintain work area in a clean and orderly condition

Essential Job Functions:

Attendance and dependability – Arrive to work on time, work required hours and if needed stay to get deadlines met, Self-motivating and flexible

Perform detailed and meticulous computations for extended periods. (Daily/all day)

Ability to interface effectively with purchasing, Superintendent, foreman and staff.