

Machine Operator/Art Metal

We have an opportunity for a team member as a Machine Operator, operating industrial robots. Established in 1998, we specialize in high end projects for the arts, architecture, and design industries. We are a steadily growing company that offers the opportunity to develop as a professional, work with some very talented people and the satisfaction of being part of the creation of some extraordinary, globally recognized projects. A person who is easy to work with, reliable, has a high mechanical aptitude, and a mind for details is an ideal candidate.

New team members will receive training in robot operation and processes, and will be expected to operate both in a team and independently to meet project deadlines.

Primary Job Responsibilities:

- Robot cell setup & workpiece handling
- Generate tool paths for industrial robots
- Operate industrial robots
- Apply abrasive finishing techniques utilizing sanders and other tools according to verbal & written standard operating procedures
- Basic maintenance of robots and tools

Required Qualifications

- Team player
- 1+ years in an industrial environment
- Mechanically minded/comfortable with machines
- Attention to detail/thoroughness
- Ability to lift 50 lbs.
- Capable of standing for long periods of time
- Capable of safe & competent work around potentially hazardous machinery

Preferred Qualifications

- Ability to work swing shift/weekends
- CAD environment experience at any level
- CNC experience & machine programming

Pay based on experience, starting $20-24/hr.

Benefits

- Paid federal holidays
- Paid time off
- Health insurance

Qualified candidates should send a current resumé and cover letter indicating relevant experience.